

World Marxist Review

Guidelines for Contributions

About the Journal

The quarterly journal World Marxist Review, co-sponsored by the Innovative Marxist Studies Section of the World Association for Political Economy and Northwestern Polytechnical University in China, published its first issue via Canut Publisher in April 2024.

In the spirit of upholding fundamental principles and breaking new ground in Marxist theories, the journal aims to solve major theoretical and practical problems in the fields of global economy, people's livelihood, politics, culture, civilization, ecology, military, international relations, and social movements, thus objectively analyzing erroneous views in various fields, especially criticizing the fallacies and behaviors of the neo-imperialist and hegemonic alliances in the current conjuncture, so as to promote consistency and innovation in Marxist theories in various countries and around the world.

The journal mainly publishes articles on a wide range of important topics, including: studies of Marxist classical works and their evolving history in various countries, the latest advances and scientific innovations in Marxist theories around the world, the main theories of current communist and workers' parties, the international communist movement and the development of world socialism, etc.

Submission Requirements

The length of a general paper should not exceed 12,000 words. Short reviews should be no less than 2,500 words, and the article summary is about 400 words.

To enter the review process, authors must provide personal details such as institutional affiliation, specialty, position, academic experience, photo, email address, etc.

Submission and contact email address: worldmarxismreview@vip.163.com.